COMMITTEE REPORTS

Councilwoman Wechtler inquired about the status of the library.

Councilman Fasolo provided an update on the Youth Advisory Committee. He stated that he plans to hold the first meeting at the end of September. Additionally, he shared information on a website called Level Up.

Mayor Colletti stated that the Borough is currently in the process of filling the Recreation Director position and advised that the Borough Building will remain closed for the time being.

PUBLIC COMMENT

Dominick Scalcione, E. 54th Street, followed up in regards to his inquiry of English Avenue Park. He stated that there is still no fence and brush is being left on the field. He also noted that it was nice to see the residents in the area come together during the recent power outage.

Jeffrey Freitag, Hillman Drive, questioned the payment to Alaimo Group for their work on the Tennis Courts and whether or not it was the final payment. He felt that Alaimo should hold some responsibility for the delay of the project. Mr. Freitag then requested more information on the side bar agreement on the consent agenda. Lastly, he confirmed that a third meeting will be held in August on the 27th. Mr. Freitag asked whether or not it would be held teleconference, which he does not agree with being that some individuals do enter the building.

A motion was made by Councilman Fasolo and seconded by Councilwoman Pellegrine to adjourn. Motion carried unanimously.

Respectfully submitted,
